Customer must claim any exemption from such taxes, fees or assessments at the time of purchase and provide the necessary supporting documentation. Due to a warehouse and employees in New York, New Jersey, California, Iowa, Oregon and Texas, unless presented with evidence of exemption, AMV is required to levy, NY, NJ, CA, IA, OR and TX state sales tax on orders delivered within those states. Rush orders will incur an additional service charge. Shipping and delivery dates are not guaranteed. Orders can be delayed because of payment, billing, or shipping verification in order to prevent fraudulent credit card transactions. Tracking numbers will automatically be sent to the Customer when the order has shipped. AMV does not process or ship orders on weekends or national holidays. Such requests shall be subject to approval by AMV, which shall not be unreasonably withheld if, in the sole discretion of AMV, it is practical to delay shipping, or the Products will be shipped to the designated address or location originally requested by Customer. Notwithstanding any language to the contrary in this Agreement, in the event of a request and approval to delay shipping of finished goods, Customer agrees and understands Transfer of Title and Risk of Loss to Products passes from AMV to Customer effective from the time of the request. Any such delay of shipment of finished goods shall not delay any and all payment terms and obligations.

International Shipping: As the importer of record, the recipient is responsible for any additional levies, duties, taxes and other customs fees required for clearance. These fees vary from country to country and change often, so we are unable to control or predict them. Please contact your local post/customs office for more information. AMV will not issue credit for any orders that are refused or abandoned.

5. Force Majeure: Delay in performance or non-performance of any obligation contained herein shall be excused to the extent such failure or non-performance is caused by Force Majeure. For purposes of this Agreement, "Force Majeure" shall mean any cause preventing performance of an obligation under this Agreement (except for the payment of money) which is beyond the reasonable control of either party hereto, and which by the exercise of reasonable and customary due diligence, could not have been avoided or overcome, including without limitation, fire, flood, sabotage, shipwreck, embargo, explosion, labor trouble, accident, riot, acts of governmental authority (including, without limitation, acts, tariffs, duties or other obligations imposed based on laws or regulations now in existence as well as those enacted in the future), acts of God, and delays or failure in obtaining components from suppliers, raw materials or transportation.

AMV will not split orders unless the Customer requests a split shipment and provides payment for each shipment.

Cancellation requests after this time may result in a cancellation fee of 5% on Components and 15% plus labor on Systems (excludes any tax charged). In the case of discontinued items or those approaching end of life, a comparable replacement as determined by AMV, may be provided. The foregoing shall be Customer's sole remedy and AMV's sole liability under any warranty claim. The warranty will be void if there is evidence of damage, misuse, or modification by the Customer. To avoid confusion between the parties, in the context of this clause, the meaning of "misuse" may include, but shall not be limited to any use or modification of the Products, whether in and of itself or in combination with other components, devices, software, application or environment which exceeds, or is outside the scope of the technical specifications or performance capabilities of the product and/or applications, as expressly stated in any product instructions, technical manuals, specifications or that which is or was expressly disclosed to and mutually understood and agreed to between the parties at the time of sale.
