

AMV Government Entity Addendum

This AMV Government Entity Addendum is a part of AMV's Terms and Condition of Streaming Service and sets forth additional terms for U.S. government entities that conduct business with AMV.

1. Amendment to Terms of Service

To the extent that you are

(a) an official United States federal, state, or local government agency or body,

(b) using our services in your official capacity, and

(c) are prohibited by any law, regulation, rule, or ordinance from accepting all provisions of the Terms of Service, the following amendments to the Terms of Service apply:

- The indemnification provisions do not apply.
- The choice of law and choice of venue provisions do not apply to you.
- If you have purchased subscription services, your subscription shall not automatically renew unless you continue using the applicable service after the then-current term.
- If your profile page is public, you shall identify yourself by your official agency/body name on the page and provide a link to your official website (if any).

2. U.S. Government Contracting

AMV's affiliated company AMV, LLC is registered in the System for Award Management (SAM) to conduct business with the U.S. Government.
